Pohnpei Government

Pohnpei State Government

Governor, Pohnpei State
Stevenson A. Joseph

POHNPEI STATE GOVERNMENT
FEDERATED STATES OF MICRONESIA

Pohnpei is one of the four states of the Federated States of Micronesia (FSM), a country located in the western Pacific Ocean. The Pohnpei State Government is the governing body responsible for managing the affairs of the Pohnpei State.

The capital of Pohnpei is Kolonia, which is also the largest town in the state. Pohnpei is famous for its archaeological sites, including the ancient city of Nan Madol, which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The state's economy relies on agriculture, fishing, tourism, and financial assistance from the Federated States of Micronesia national government and international partners.

Lieutenant Governor, Pohnpei State
Francisco L. Ioanis

Municipal Governments

Pohnpei State is divided into municipalities, and each municipality has its own local government. These local governments are responsible for various services and functions within their respective areas, such as public utilities, education, healthcare, and local infrastructure. These are listed with their populations at the 2010 Census:

Pohnpei Proper (34,789)

- Madolenihmw (5,767)
- Nett (6,639)
- Sokehs (6,647)
- Kitti (6,470)
- Kolonia (6,074)
- U (3,192)

Outer islands (1,407)

- Mwoakilloa (or Mokil) (183)
- Pingelap (258)
- Sapwuahfik (formerly Ngatik) (456)
- Nukuoro (210)
- Kapingamarangi (350)
- Oroluk (no population) since 1985 part of Sokehs Municipality)